SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT

We are pleased to share with you some exciting updates in the planning of the “OMICs in biomedical research”. Please visit our Web site to review the scientific program, as well as important information regarding abstract and registration and more exciting details about the Conference.

Conference will be jointly organized by MedILS and University of Toronto.

- 1. SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM: Novel technological advances have allowed biologists to take a sharp turn in their approaches to decipher molecular function and basis of physiological and pathological mechanisms. This conference will bring together researchers who are applying and developing novel “OMICs” approaches with an ultimate goal of understanding the functions of genes & proteins of therapeutic importance. At the conference topics such as emerging OMICs technologies, gene/protein and metabolic networks as well as their role in drug discovery and human diseases will be covered.

Detailed conference program is now available on our website.

- 2. CONFERENCE REGISTRATION: The task of planning each conference activity and event entails considerable planning and organizing; therefore we urge you register through on-line registration form on our Web site: <http://www.medils.org/about/conference/>
- 3. CALL FOR ABSTRACTS: Abstracts are now being accepted for lecture (invited speakers), short oral presentation (SOP) or poster presentation in each of the sessions. The abstract template can be downloaded as a Word file. Remember to submit your abstracts by February 15th 2015 (if you need a few extra days, just let us know). A confirmation of receipt email will be sent within 48 hours of abstract submission. For abstract submission guidelines, please visit <http://www.medils.org/about/conference/>

Questions regarding Abstracts may be directed to Irena Rajic (irena.rajic@medils.hr).

From the Organizing Committee, we thank you for your participation in the “OMICs in biomedical research” and we look forward to an exciting conference!

Organisers:
